UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF OREGON
PENDLETON DIVISION

ADAM DAVID NILSSON,

Case No. 2:19-cv-01250-HL

Plaintiff,

v.

JOINT STATUS REPORT

BAKER COUNTY, et al.,

Defendants.

The parties to this action have conferred and submit the following Joint Status Report pursuant to the Court's email request of December 1, 2022.

1. Whether Stay of Discovery Should be Lifted: The parties agree that additional discovery is necessary and that the stay should be lifted.
2. Whether Plaintiff Intends to Obtain Counsel: Plaintiff intends to proceed pro se.
3. ADR Options and Filing of Joint ADR Report: The parties ask to address with Judge Hallman at our next status conference whether ADR would be fruitful and, if so, set a date for a joint ADR report at that time.
4. Consent to a Magistrate / Transfer: Notwithstanding the fact that a withdraw of consent to jurisdiction exists in the record (ECF 113), the parties may still obtain full consent for purposes of trial and discussions on that issue continue.

5. Scheduling Order:

At this point, the only deadline the parties seek to have the Court set is the reopening of discovery for a period of approximately ninety (90) days. It may also be appropriate for the Court to set a deadline for a Joint ADR Report as well after the status conference.

6. Availability for Status Conference:

Between now and January 1, 2023, the parties are generally available for a status conference with the Court except for December 16th and December 30th.

DATED this 9th day of December, 2022.
